

The DPCA in Brief

The Digital Photo Club is an incorporated social club of over 100 members that meets every other week between early September and mid-June in room 308 of Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts, 801 Chase Street, Annapolis, MD 21401. Visitors are welcome to attend two meetings without charge.”

The Club offers a robust program of events, which include field trips, swap meets, and presentations from professional photographers and club members on various technical and compositional aspects of photography. In addition, members may share their photographs through Showcases, Challenges, and Field Trip Showcases presented at Club meetings. Finally, the Club sponsors numerous exhibits at venues in the region which allow members to share their works with the general public.

Regular emails, a Club Flickr site and a private Facebook group provide members with multiple ways to connect, ask questions, and share news.