- I was standing there huddling by myself when this gentleman came up to me and said, "There's an eagle in a tree that your lens might capture". My lens looked like a "shrimp" compared to the others I saw there. Anyway, I finally saw the eagle, took about 4 shots and then said to my husband that I was miserably cold and ran to the car to get warm. When I got home that day I went on the web and ordered boots that are good to -45 degrees, gloves where I can flip off the tips of the forefinger and thumbs, a long down coat and wool scarf. Thanks! Jan

It's not always about the eagles

- “No notable bird shots but I did shoot the sunrise pic on the trip.” - Bill T.
